Murphy Company Names Mathisen to Lead Denver Office

DENVER – Robert Mathisen has been appointed senior vice president/general manager for Murphy Company, one of the nation’s top mechanical contractors. The announcement was made by Patrick Murphy, Jr., president.

“Bob has a very extensive and impressive background in mechanical construction and is a proven leader in the industry,” noted Murphy. “His skill, expertise and project management experience fit in well with our team in Denver and our growing client base around the nation.”

Mathisen has 33 years of experience in the mechanical construction industry and is a member of the Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Design Build Institute of America, and the International Society of Pharmaceutical Engineering.

Mathisen holds a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering from Cornell University and studied Finance and Accounting for the Non-Financial Executive at Columbia University.

Murphy Company delivers mechanical solutions to the industrial, commercial, institutional and heavy industrial markets. With corporate offices in Denver and St. Louis and regional offices in Colorado Springs, Colo., and Fairview Heights, Ill., the firm offers process piping, HVAC, refrigeration, plumbing, design-build, piping fabrication, energy solutions and 24-hour service. Murphy currently is ranked No. 13 on Engineering News-Record’s list of top mechanical contractors in the United States. Founded in 1907, the firm employs more than 1,000 people nationwide.
