Murphy Company Adds Senior Project Manager to Denver Office

DENVER – Terry Ross has joined Murphy Company’s Denver office as senior project manager.

In this role, Ross plans and executes projects, overseeing construction sites, and managing project objectives, requirements and personnel.

Prior to joining Murphy, Ross served as the vice president of operations at Raab Mechanical in Waukesha, Wis. With more than 25 years in the mechanical contracting industry, his vast experience entails sales, estimating, design, purchasing, project management, financials, warehouse and shop management, and field operations. Ross has supervised several major projects in Milwaukee, Wis., including Milwaukee Art Museum, Aurora Baycare Hospital, Froedert Hospital, St. Mary’s Hospital, Columbia Hospital, G.E. Medical Systems and Kilbourn Towers.

Ross received a Bachelor of Science degree in Architectural Engineering. His current and past affiliations include The the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning (ASHRAE), Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors’ National Association (SMACNA), Mechanical Contractors Association of America (MCAA) and PMC in Milwaukee, Wisc.

Murphy Company delivers mechanical solutions to the industrial, commercial, institutional and heavy industrial markets. With corporate offices in Denver and St. Louis and regional offices in Colorado Springs, Colo., and Fairview Heights, Ill., the firm offers process piping, HVAC, refrigeration, plumbing, design-build, piping fabrication, energy solutions and 24-hour service. Murphy currently is ranked No. 13 on Engineering News-Record’s list of top mechanical contractors in the United States. Founded in 1907, the firm employs more than 1,000 people nationwide.
